Efforts during 1962 by a group of parents headed by Sid Goode and Hughie Ross saw teams under the name of Elizabeth Downs begin playing in the Elizabeth and Districts Junior Soccer Association at the start of the 1963 season. Years later the products of this team, and the many more which followed and participated in the formation and growth of the Elizabeth Downs Junior Soccer Club were entering adulthood with the desire and need to continue playing soccer. With this in mind a group, led by Frank Smith the first chairman, Alan Murhpy and Tony Partridge formed the Elizabeth Downs United Soccer club and entered it in the South Australian Amateur Soccer League. In 1971 the new club, with its 1st and Reserve teams, began playing in Division 3. Its first game against MU Findon (now called Macedonia) was played at Argana Park Elizabeth Downs. South Australian Amateur Soccer League. In 1971 the new club, with its 1st and Reserve teams, began playing in Division 3. Its first game against MU Findon (now called Macedonia) was played at Argana Park Elizabeth Downs. The club's first coach was Harry Perry and amongst the players to take the field on that day were Alan Murphy, David Swann, Tony Partridge, Terry Cook, Robin Bodycombe, Bernie Kenyon, David Vickers, Paul Perryman, John Zybek, Anthony Edwards, John Stanfield, Phil Clifford, Barry Sunderland and Ian Bell who took out the club's Best and Fairest Award. The 1971 season ended with the 1st team in 3rd position and the Reserves in 2nd position.

The 1972 season again saw the club playing in Division 3 with the 1st team finishing in 5th position and the Reserves again in 2nd place. Alf Day with 14 goals, Alan McManus with 12 goals and Tony Partridge with 8 goals excelled up front, while David Swann (who took out the club's Best and Fairest Award), Terry Cook and Robin Bodycombe were strong in defense and Alan Murphy and Roger Oliver ran the midfield.
